"I'm very proud of our guys, of not putting their head down after some failure. It's just with any other life lesson. You get some failure and what are you going to do about it? Our guys decided to have some determination and do something about it. That was a gritty, gritty performance tonight."

National Champs In Inaugural Big West Season

Long Beach State completed an impressive 2018 run with the program's second national championship to punctuate the inaugural season of Big West men's volleyball.

Making their seventh all-time appearance in the national finals – and first since 2004 – the top-seeded Beach knocked off host UCLA in five sets at Pauley Pavilion to claim their first national title since 1991.

LBSU reached the Final Four for the third straight year, and expelled the bitter taste of semifinal exits in the previous two trips with a pair of gritty wins over Ohio State and the Bruins, their former rival in the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

Finishing 28-1 overall and tying the 2004 squad for the second-most wins in program history – the 1991 champions had 31 wins – Long Beach State overcame its first 2-1 deficit in any match this season when UCLA won sets two and three in front of a boisterous crowd of 7,248 at Pauley.

LBSU won the final two sets in thrilling fashion to avenge the only other NCAA Tournament meeting between the two programs. The Bruins defeated the Beach in three sets at Pauley Pavilion in the 1970 title match.

Beach Become Big West's 18th Team Champ

Long Beach State joined a pantheon of teams in Big West lore as the 18th national champion – and the first since UC Santa Barbara men's soccer in 2006 to accomplish the feat. The league has won 10 women's team titles and eight men's during a highly successful 49 years of operation.

First To First

Long Beach State became the first men's team in Big West history to win a national championship in the inaugural season of conference sport sponsorship. Former Big West (then Pacific Coast Athletic Association) member San Jose State captured the women's golf national title in 1987, the first year that sport had been added.

The Anteaters notched 20 or more wins for the third time in the last four years, and won 12 matches against teams ranked in the AVCA top 15.

UCI fell in five sets to Ohio State in an NCAA opening round match. The Anteaters did not get swept all season, and were 12-0 in three set matches.

Hawai'i Finishes Season In Top Five

Hawai'i, the only team in the nation to beat Long Beach State this season, garnered a 19-8 record and tied for second in the Big West with a 6-4 record. The Rainbow Warriors also earned a win over No. 2 UCLA, making them the only program in the country to defeat the top two teams this season.

Knipe, Campbell Hit Career Coaching Milestones

Two head coaches claimed career win No. 300 earlier this season – Long Beach State's ALAN KNIPE and CSUN's JEFF CAMPBELL. Knipe earned No. 300 with an April 6 win at UC San Diego. He is now 306-147 overall in 15 seasons at the Beach. Campbell achieved his milestone on March 15 in a three-set upset of then No. 3 Hawai'i. UCSB also defeated then-No. 3 UC Irvine in five sets on April 12.

YEAR IN REVIEW NOTEBOOK

Knipe Joins Select Company

Long Beach State head coach ALAN KNIPE accomplished something only three other individuals can lay claim to on their résumés – winning a men's volleyball national championship as both player and coach. Knipe, the starting middle blocker on the 1991 Beach national title squad, hoisted the trophy for the first time as a mentor when another middle, NICK AMADO, put down the final kill in LBSU's five-set triumph over UCLA on May 5. Knipe joins UCLA's John Speraw, USC's Bob Yoder and Pepperdine's Rod Wilde as the only player-coach combos to raise championship hardware.
