ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Ashley Pane, Cal Poly • Senior Sacramento, Calif./Santa Clara

Cal Poly senior Ashley Pane collected Big West Women's Tennis Athlete of the Week honors after posting a combined 4-0 singles and doubles record in conference victories against Pacific and No. 66 UC Davis.

The wins helped Cal Poly stay atop the Big West standings with a 6-0 record and moved the Mustangs closer to their first-ever regular season title.

Pane, playing at No. 3 singles against Pacific's Olga Gumenyuk, won a convincing 6-0, 6-1 match. She moved up to the No. 2 position against Dahra Zamudio of UC Davis. After losing the first set, Pane rebounded to capture a 2-6, 6-2, 6-4 victory that clinched the overall team match for the Mustangs. In No. 2 doubles, Pane and partner Jocelyn Davis earned identical 8-2 outcomes against their Tiger and Aggie counterparts.

Benjamin Recknagel, UC Santa Barbara • Sophomore Munich Germany/Carl-Orff Gymnasium

Sophomore Benjamin Recknagel held his position at the top of UC Santa Barbara's lineup, winning a pair of matches to collect Big West Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week accolades.

Recknagel climbed back from a first-set deficit to defeat Pacific's Tomasz Krzyszkowski on Saturday. His 2-6, 6-1, 6-0 triumph knotted a tightly contested match at 3-3 before the Tigers went on to defeat the Gauchos 4-3.

In Sunday's tough 4-3 loss against No. 41 Fresno State, Recknagel dominated Rikus de Villiers in a 6-1, 6-2 rout. The win provided UCSB's first point of the match after the Gauchos had trailed 3-0.

NOTEWORTHY

Cal Poly Women Look To Wrap Up Tournament No. 1 Seed

Big West Tournament seeding and title implications are in play when league-leading Cal Poly visits Long Beach State on Saturday at 11:00 a.m. in a women's tennis showdown. The Mustangs would clinch the No. 1 tournament seed and at least a share of the regular season conference championship with a win. The obstacle is formidable as the 49ers are owners of three straight Big West regular season titles. LBSU has captured four of the five previous crowns since the Big West went to a round-robin format in 2006.

Cal Poly (14-3, 6-0 Big West) is riding a season-best nine-match winning streak and owns the highest ranking of any Big West school at No. 42 in the latest Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) poll. Long Beach State (13-5, 4-1) has won five of its last seven contests with a No. 47 national ranking to its credit. To defeat the Mustangs opens up the possibility of the 49ers attaining the No. 1 tournament seed with conference road matches against UC Davis and Pacific remaining.

The 49ers had won 31 consecutive regular season matches against Big West opponents over a four-year span before UC Santa Barbara halted the streak with a 4-3 triumph on March 5. LBSU has won the last nine straight meetings against CP, a streak which began with the 2004 Big West Tournament semifinals.

Pivotal Match Looms Between Gauchos, Aggies

In addition to doing some scoreboard watching during Saturday's Cal Poly-Long Beach State battle, a couple of other championship contenders square off in northern California. UC Santa Barbara and UC Davis, both 4-1 in conference play, are in the hunt as far as vying for the Big West championship. The winner of the Gauch-Aggie matchup would root for a subsequent LBSU victory, which means three schools would have only one conference defeat.

Men's Tennis Takes Slight Break From Big West Play

Cal Poly (12-3, 3-0) and UC Irvine (10-5, 2-0) are the two remaining undefeated teams in Big West play going into the season's stretch run. The Mustangs and Anteaters are scheduled to play each other on Saturday, April 23 in the regular season finale that may very well determine the champion and tournament No. 1 seed. In the meantime, this week's schedule is entirely comprised of non-conference matchups. UCI is the busiest of the bunch with four home matches against Loyola Marymount, Sacramento State, Saint Mary's and Portland. UC Santa Barbara takes a roadtrip to the Lone Star State to face Texas-Arlington and No. 61 SMU, while Pacific remains home to face Gonzaga and No. 50 Santa Clara.

Ranked Teams Galore In Big West

The April 5 Intercollegiate Tennis Association rankings shows that seven teams (five women, two men) are represented in the Big West. Cal Poly leads the women's side at No. 42, followed closely behind by No. 47 Long Beach State. UC Irvine (No. 60), UC Santa Barbara (No. 64) and UC Davis (No. 65) are also ranked. Among the men's representatives, Cal Poly has attained a season-high No. 40 ranking. UCI is ranked No. 49.
