NOTEWORTHY

Men's Tennis Earns Multiple NCAA Bids For First Time Since 2000

UC Irvine and Cal Poly reached the postseason to give the Big West multiple representatives in the NCAA Men's Tennis Championship for the first time since the 2000 season. The Anteaters secured their second straight NCAA appearance and 11th overall to highlight a highly successful 19-8 season which included wins against five ranked opponents. UCI, the Big West's automatic qualifier, lost a close 4-1 encounter versus No. 28 Mississippi in the NCAA first round to cap the season.

Cal Poly qualified for the 64-team bracket as an at-large selection, making the NCAA field for the first time in program history. The Mustangs won 12 of 14 matches at one juncture and knocked off three ranked non-conference teams. Cal Poly fell 4-0 to No. 25 Washington in the NCAA first round to finish the campaign with a 14-7 record.

Two Schools Represent Big West In NCAA Women's Championship

The 2011 women's tennis season culminated in two schools representing the Big West at the NCAA Championships. Long Beach State and Cal Poly turned in solid performances to give the conference two postseason clubs for the second time in history, alongside LBSU and UC Irvine in 2007. The 49ers claimed their seventh trip to the NCAA's in the last eight years and eighth overall appearance. LBSU, which finished 20-6 for the fifth 20-win season in head coach Jenny Hilt-Costello's 14-year tenure, lost a heartbreaking 4-2 match to Pepperdine in the NCAA first round.

Meanwhile, Cal Poly ushered 11th-year head coach Hugh Bream into retirement with an exceptional going away present - a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Six victories against ranked opponents and a national ranking as high as No. 36 propelled the Mustangs into the postseason as an at-large selection. Cal Poly traveled to Waco, Tex. for NCAA first round competition and ran into a formidable No. 24 Oklahoma squad, losing 4-0 in the program's second overall postseason appearance.

UC Irvine Individual, Cal Poly Duo Qualify For NCAA Championships

The success of the 2011 season also was punctuated by Big West participation in the NCAA Men's Tennis Singles and Doubles Championships. UC Irvine junior Chris Kearney, a transfer from North Carolina, helped his team immensely at No. 1 singles as he sported a 16-7 record in dual matches and climbed all the way to No. 32 in the Campbell's Intercollegiate Tennis Association national rankings. Kearney took on Mississippi's Marcel Thiemann of Ole Miss in the first round of the singles draw and fell by a score of 7-6, 6-1. He was the first Anteater player to compete in the singles championship since Victor Lamm in 2008.

Cal Poly's duo of Andre Dome and Alexander Sonesson displayed their talents in the 32-team NCAA doubles tournament as the highest ranked team from the Big West. Dome and Sonesson posted a 15-6 dual match record playing at the No. 1 position for the Mustangs and carried a No. 45 national ranking going into their match against ninth-ranked Jean Andersen and Ed Corrie from Texas. They put up a good fight but dropped a 6-3, 6-3 decision versus their Longhorn counterparts.
