DID YOU KNOW?

- Anchoring the returnees will be senior middle blocker Dominique Olowolafe, an All-Big West Conference First Team selection last season. Olowolafe hit a Big West best .346 while adding 2.35 kills and 0.68 blocks per set.

- Cal Poly opens the 2010 season with an 12-game road trip that encompasses four different states. Following a season-opening trip to South Bend, Ind., for the Shamrock Invitational, the Mustangs visit Provo, Utah, and Pullman, Wash., before returning to their home state for the Aggie Invitational hosted by conference foe UC Davis. Big West champions in 2006 and 2007, Cal Poly opens conference play on Friday, Sept. 24 at UC Irvine, which last year deadlocked both UC Santa Barbara and UC Davis for second place in the league standings.

- Cal Poly won the conference's first volleyball title back in 1984. It took the Mustangs 22 years before claiming their second league crown in 2006. Cal Poly enters the 2010 season with three Big West Championships after collecting its most recent title in 2007.

DID YOU KNOW?

• Cal State Northridge plays just one contest in the familiar confines of The Matadome in its first 13 games of the season. Following a nine-game, season-opening road trip, the Matadors host UCLA on Sept. 14. Including the showdown with the Bruins, the Matadors play just 11 home contests in 2009, eight of which are Big West Conference games.

• The Matadors return four starters and add five newcomers to their roster in 2010. Cal State Northridge will have to overcome the loss of All-Big West First Teamer Angela Hupp, who was first on the team in kills and second in assists. They return outside hitters Brittany Williams and all-freshman selection Britney Graff as well as senior middle blocker Lynda Morales. Williams led the Matadors in kills per set with 2.81 and Morales tied for second on the team last season with 95 blocks.
